

THE VIRGINIA FARMLAND SOLSTICE SUPPER

SATURDAY, JUNE 20 · 2009

Vermilion Restaurant and the Neighborhood Restaurant Group are proud to present an authentic outdoor fork to farm experience on Saturday, June 20 on a beautiful parcel of Virginia Farmland in Loudon County. The Summer Solstice Supper will feature a multi-course feast in the field prepared by Chef Tony Chittum using the season's finest ingredients plucked from this patch and paired with an array of exceptional wines by Virginia's own Dennis Horton.

Guests are invited to meet and mingle with the folks who farm this very land, including Ellen Polishuk of Potomac Vegetable Farms, Chip and Susan Planck of Wheatland Farms, Rob Moutoux Jr. of Moutoux Orchard, Barbara Lamborne of Greenstone Fields and Georgia O' Neal and Zach Lester of Tree and Leaf Farm along with winemaker Dennis Horton. A relaxed reception in the peach orchard with music, horseshoes and hayrides will precede an unforgettable evening of exceptional food and wine outdoors on the farm.

Tickets are $160 per person plus tax. Rain date scheduled for Saturday, June 27.

Please visit vermilionrestaurant.com, call 703.447.1757 or e-mail cparker@neighborhoodrestaurantgroup.com for reservations and more information